

Danksagung an die UNO-Flüchtlingshilfe e.V., Bonn

Die deutsche Sektion der AWR bedankt sich bei der UNO-Flüchtlingshilfe e.V., Bonn, für die großzügige finanzielle Unterstützung anlässlich der Durchführung des 55. Internationalen Kongresses der AWR in Ljubljana, Slowenien.

News on the AWR Italian Section Activity

The AWR Italian Section, in co-operation with the “Associazione Città di Narni per la formazione superiore, gli studi universitari e la ricerca” has organized a National Congress on “Enlarged Europe and Integration of Third Country Nationals”.

The Congress was held on 12 June 2006 at the famous Albornoz’ Rocca (Castle) located in the town of Narni. Students, Academics, AWR Italian members, and other experts on asylum and refugees matters have participated in the meeting chaired by the Constitutional Judge Prof. Maria Rita Saule.

After welcome messages from the President of the AWR Italian Section, Dr. Luigino Manca, the President of the above mentioned “Associazione Città di Narni”, Dr. Simona Buscella and Mr. Aldo Clemente, Honorary Secretary General of the Italian AWR Section, speakers have been invited to make their lectures.

Attending as speakers:

Prof. Alessandro Polli, researcher of economic statistics at the University of Rome ‘La Sapienza’, Dr. Daniela Florida, UNHCR Member, Dr. Nicola Colacino, Lawyer and PhD on ‘International Order and Human Rights’, Dr. Valeria Silvestri, PhD student on ‘International Order and Human Rights’ (University of Rome ‘La Sapienza’), Dr. Sonia Masiello, PhD on Theory and Social Research (University of Rome ‘La Sapienza’), and Dr. Daniela Carlà, General Director of the Ministry of Labour in Italy.

An interesting discussion has followed speakers’ lectures. Many questions and comments have been addressed on several matters, such as family reunification and on rules of non-discrimination.
